Today is Sea Sunday, when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Without them we would not have most of the items we buy in the shops. Today's Retiring Collection is for the Apostleship of the Sea, the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church. It supports seafarers both practically and spiritually. The collection is vital to enable it to continue its work, so please give generously and remember seafarers in your prayers. Thank you. For more information about its work and to donate on line please visit www.apostleshipofthesea.org.uk

Cornwall Hospice Care invite you to bring your attic treasures or family heirlooms for a Valuation Morning with expert David Lay at Marazion Community Centre (next to the Surgery) this Thursday 13th July: 10 – 12noon. Enjoy a morning coffee, stalls – cakes – plants – handbags – tombola; £2 entry includes coffee & biscuits; Valuations £1 per item. See poster.

Next Weekend we shall welcome Father Ted Wildsmith
The only weekday Masses during this time will on Tuesdays and Thursdays: 11th July at 12 noon, 13th at 10 a.m. and the following week 18th & 20th at 9 a.m. Welcome also this week for the two weekday Masses to Fr David Annear from Launceston, here for a few days.

Parish Annual Meeting on Thursday 27th July 7 p.m.

St Ives Summer Fair is on Thursday, 3rd August from 10 am. Keep the date free and in your diary, details later. Begin stocking the stalls now esp. Tombola. Bring things to stock the stalls into any of our churches.

Cream Tea in the Presbytery Garden on Sunday 6 August from 2. 30 p.m. There will be a parish stall and also a 'Mary's Meals' stall and maybe others. All welcome here.

The West Cornwall Group of the Catenian Association will meet on Friday 14th of July at the usual venue of the Longboat Inn, Market Jew Street, Penzance. New members are always welcome. If you want to come along to find out more contact Tony Sadler on 01736 761991.

Hats, Scarves and Gloves: Carol is visiting again at the end of the month so get knitting so that she can take some back with her for the homeless at the 'Passage.'

Wednesday Friendship club will meet this month on 26th for a cream tea and social get together. All welcome, in the Parish Hall.

Children's Liturgy: 11 a.m. Sunday Mass. All children welcome – please feel free to accompany your child, and stay as long as you wish. Sessions are held in the Hall below the church, returning at the Offertory.

Help with Children's Liturgy. Michelle, Susie and Anthea would be glad of extra help to run the Liturgy. Session materials and notes are provided. Come and see what we do. Just 2 more helpers would mean helping one Sunday a month. Thank you for considering this – our children do benefit from a simplified liturgy which explains the readings at their level.

Catechetics: Thanks and Looking Ahead.

Now this half year programmes are completed, thanks to those catechists who have led the First Holy Communion programme, and others who have helped on RCIA.

Looking to the Autumn let us know any names for any children who will wish to join our First Reconciliation and Holy Communion; young people for Confirmation, and anyone wishing to explore more about the Catholic Faith or becoming a catholic, which is the Journey of Faith (RCIA). Let us know names either by email, or in writing or phone to the Presbytery Office (362619)

Smile Lines:

A driver was speeding along the motorway, safe in the knowledge that all the cars around him were also speeding. However, as they passed a speed camera, he was pulled over. As the policeman wrote out the ticket, the driver protested, 'I know I was exceeding the speed limit, but all the other cars round me were going just as fast. I don't think it's fair that I've been singled out.' The policeman looked at him and asked, 'Ever been fishing?' 'Yes,' said the driver, puzzled. The policeman grinned 'Did you ever catch all the fish?'

A golfer asked a famous mystic if there were any golf courses in heaven. The old seer went away to meditate on the question. After many hours, he returned and said to the golfer: 'I have good news and bad news for you. First of all, the good news. There are many golf courses in heaven, perfectly designed with the smoothest greens, supplied with immaculate equipment. Now the bad news. You'll be teeing off there at 10.30 next Wednesday!

A certain bishop had a fondness for using Biblical quotations whenever he visited a function. When he arrived to open a new Maternity Home the organisers thought; 'Now we have him stumped.' However, after a few well chosen words, he smiled and said: 'I know you are all waiting for a quotation, so here it is 'We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed!'
