From last Sunday's homily that many requested:

An old Jewish saying from a wise rabbi:

Ten strong things have been created in the world. Rock is hard, but iron cleaves it. Iron is hard but fire softens it. Fire is powerful, but water quenches it. Water is heavy but clouds bear it. Clouds are thick but wind scatters them. Wind is strong, but a body resists it. A body is strong, but fear crushes it. Fear is powerful, but wine banishes it. Wine is strong, but sleep works it off. Sleep is strong but death is stronger, and yet love delivers from death.

Mary Mother of the Church. May is the month of Mary and this year sees the first celebration of the new feast established by Pope Francis. It is to be celebrated each year on the day after Pentecost, this year Monday 21st.

The descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost strengthened the early Christian community to commence their work of evangelisation to the ends of the earth. Mary had already welcomed the Spirit at the Annunciation and she was present at the foot of the cross as he was crucified, faithful to the end. In this way she is the model of discipleship, the first to follow her Son. The feast calls us to recognise Mary as the Mother of all members of the Church, and to follow her example of faithfulness.

May 21st is also the memorial of St Eugene de Mazenod Who visited Penzance in 1850, as Bishop of Marseilles. We shall remember him at Mass that day.

Little Grace was very impressed when everyone was told to "Stand for Grace" at the beginning of a wedding reception.

"Mummy" said a little girl, "I'm not going to finish my prayers with Amen anymore. I'm going to say RSVP."
