Message for education Sunday – 13th September – At the heart of our diocese is Plymouth CAST, a family of 34 Catholic schools and one nursery spanning Cornwall, Devon and Dorset. The Trust exists to ensure that our young people flourish in environments that are safe, happy and intellectually stimulating.
As state-funded academies, Plymouth CAST schools provide a high-quality Catholic education that is free and accessible to all families. When a family chooses a Plymouth CAST school, they are joining a community that is: Faith-led and Ambitious for all.

Consecration of the altar .by Bishop Nicholas Sunday 1st November 11:00am Penzance

An extract from Fr Michael's homily for last Sunday (6th September)
"The altar is the place of sacrifice, the place where God in Christ dies for us and for all creation, where God in Christ pours out his love for us, where God in Christ reconciles the world to himself.
As we gather in His name around the altar, as we bring bread and wine to the altar, as we bless, break and share what becomes for us the Body and Blood of Christ we are made part of this reconciliation.
As part of this ceremony of consecrating an altar – the mensa – the top of the altar is completely covered in the Oil of Chrism, the oil that represents the Holy Spirit, the Holy Spirit that God the Father breathed across the abyss at the dawn of creation, the Holy Spirit that empowered Christ to suffer and to die for us, the Holy Spirit that raised him up again on the third day, the Holy Spirit that empowers us now in the ways of peace and justice.
We want to make Bishop Nicholas' visit to our parish and the consecration of our new altar really special. So the question is what kind of reception do we want to put on after the Mass? What kind of food and drink would we like? And is there a group of people who could pull it all together? Do please talk to me about this after I get back from our Church and Presbytery on the Isles of Scilly.
My thanks to Fr.Thomas of RNAS Culdrose and Fr. David for celebrating the Masses here in Penzance, St Ives and Hayle.
