Walsingham Pilgrimage is next week. Anyone wishing us to take petitions to leave at the Shrine, hand in or post to the Presbytery by Saturday 30th at the latest.

Hayle Walk for Cornwall Hospice Care. Many, many thanks for your great generosity, I have sent to the hospice from the sponsored walk cheques to the total of £1520.25p. With over £100 that they will be able to claim on gift aid, a magnificent sum in all. God bless you all.

Great News: The building works for Phase 1 of the completion of the church in Penzance will be starting in October. We hope it will mostly be complete by May 2018, and will provide us the much needed facilities for parish life in the 21st Century. For those who were not at the Annual Parish Meeting in July, plans will be on display shortly, showing the redevelopment of the lower levels of the church building, including most of the crypt space.

Some parishioners and benefactors have already promised or given generous donations towards the work. Anyone wishing to donate or loan to this exciting project, please speak to Fr Philip or our Treasurer, Christine Pearce.

More news and details as the weeks progress. Please return all hall and passage door keys by 9th October.

Catechetics: Learning about the Faith.

Let us know names for any children who will wish to join our First Reconciliation and Holy Communion; or young people for Confirmation.

Want to become a catholic? Want to know more about the faith? The Journey of Faith (RCIA) will begin again in the autumn. Let us know names either by email, or in writing or phone to the Presbytery Office (362619)

Beetle Drive/ Fish and Chip Supper this Thursday 28th 7 p.m. The proceeds from this will go, as last year, to the Cornwall Historic Churches Trust who have helped us in the past. The lists for your supper are in our churches so sign up now and join us for a fun evening.

Russian Choir make their annual visit on Friday, 20th October at 7.30 p.m. Please note the date, and let your friends and others you know to come along.

2018 Parish Diaries are in churches. Donations welcome

200 Club: There are still a few to pay for this year, and there are some numbers free for anyone who wishes to join. New members always welcome.

Wednesday Friendship Club will meet this week when Penny Prail will talk about "A funny job for a woman!" All welcome 2.30 p.m. in the Parish Hall

Hayle: Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament: Mondays from 11 – 12 noon. Do call in if you are passing, to pray.

Watch and Pray before the Blessed Sacrament this week, and then not again until into the New Year, as the work below will consist of knocking walls down etc.

We care about women is a campaign of SPUC to oppose decriminalising abortion. It is organising a Mass Constituency –based lobby of all MP's to ask them to vote against any moves in Parliament to decriminalise. This takes place on 27/28 October. Do notice the literature on the tables in churches. If anyone can help with this please let me know. Fr P.

Smile Lines: Justice.

Three men were sitting in a bar complaining about the injustices of the legal system. One said, 'A friend of mine ended up in court for dropping a cigarette packet.' The other two shook their heads knowingly. The second said, 'A friend of mine has got a criminal record because he overfilled his rubbish bin.' The other two shook their heads sadly. The third said, 'That's nothing. A friend of mine was prosecuted on account of his beliefs. He believed he could drive after eight pints!'
